

HOMELAND.

W.B.R.

William B. Rigdon

1. What a glad and glo-r'ous morn-ing, When Christ comes on His way; And says, dear bless-ed chil-dren, Come home with me to stay: Then we'll

2. In that home-land o-ver yon-der, Where we shall nev-er die; And there will be no part-ing, No tears to dim the eye; What a

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line, followed by three piano accompaniment staves (treble and bass clefs). The music is in 4/4 time and B-flat major. The lyrics are split across the vocal staff and the piano accompaniment staves.

join our bless-ed loved ones In the home-land of the soul, And we'll sing to Him great prais-es, While the end-less a-ges roll.

hap-py, hap-py feel-ing, Just to know all care is o'er, We will live in that blest home-land, Safe with Christ for-ev-er more.

The second system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line, followed by three piano accompaniment staves (treble and bass clefs). The music continues from the first system. The lyrics are split across the vocal staff and the piano accompaniment staves.