

William Walker

1. The time is soon com-ing, by the proph-ets fore-told, When Zi-on in pu-ri-ty the world shall be-hold. When Je-sus' pure
2. 'Twill then be dis-cov-ered who for Je-sus will be, And who are in Bab-y-lon the saints then will see, The time of di-

3. Led on by the Com-fort-er, what sweets will be found, What peace and what har-mo-ny in love will a-bound! Lost time, things for
4. What beau-ty the church-es will put on in His sight, Be gov-erned by Je-sus, who al-ways do-eth right; No spots on her tes-ti-mo-ny will gain the day, De-nom-i-na-tion self-ish-ness will van-ish a-way.

vi-sion then will be ful-ly known Be-tween the Lord's pure king-dom and de-filed Bab-y-lon.

Je-sus will be count-ed all joy, And then help-ing each oth-er a de-light-ful em-ploy.
coun-t'nance, in that glo-ri-ous day, Un-ne-ces-sa-ry cer-e-mo-nies van-ish-ed a-way.

5. The watchmen will then lift up their voices as one,
East, west, north, and south will to and fro madly run;
The spirit's pure testimony preach up the cross:
The mysteries of Babylon will suffer the loss.

6. But oh! what a storm of persecution will rage,
For cause of old Babylon too many engage:
Beholding their losses, and beginning to sink,
They hope to obstruct the light from shining, I think.

7. But truth cuts its way and love melts down Zion's foes.
The pure word of God will conquer all who oppose;
The church stands in purity, in peace and in love,
In sight of her enemies she rises above.

8. Let all who would wish to see Millennium begin,
Come out, and be separate from sinners and sin,
As soon as the churches are redeemed from all sin;
The day of the Millennium will surely begin.