

EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT.

S. J. Oslin

S. J. Oslin
Pearls of Truth in Song, 1890.

1. While 'tis mer-cy's day, and the gos-pel calls, And the mes-sage to us sent; To our ways take heed, or, 'twill come to all, - E-ver - last - ing pun - ish - ment!

2. O, the aw - ful pang's that will meet the soul, In that place of ban - ish - ment! Sin-ners weep and wail, for their doom has come! E-ver - last - ing pun - ish - ment!

3. Sin-ner, think! O, think! may be draw-ing nigh, Where the wick-ed rich man went! Who in tor-ment woke, o-pened eyes and saw! - E-ver - last - ing pun - ish - ment!

4. Now the gen - tle voice of the gos - pel comes, And it says to all, "re - pent!" If you slight its call, it will be your doom! - E-ver - last - ing pun - ish - ment!

E-ver - lasting punishment lasting punishment, Meet the wick-ed in that day; Sad re - grets, a life mis-spent, Weeping, wailing and lamenting, Will the sin-ner's por-tion be!

E-ver - last - ing punish-ment, Meet the wick-ed in that day; Sad re - grets, a life mis-spent! Will the sin-ner's por-tion be!

E-ver - last - ing punish-ment, Meet the wick-ed in that day; Sad re - grets, a life mis-spent! Will the sin-ner's por-tion be!

E-ver - lasting punishment lasting punishment, Meet the wick-ed in that day; Sad re - grets, a life mis-spent, Weeping, wailing and lamenting, Will the sin-ner's por-tion be!